

Dear FCC,

Although I cannot know the accuracy or lack thereof in the upcoming Sinclair "documentary," I know how to smell a skunk. And this is one. A media conglomerate forcing its affiliates to preempt regular programming and air a politically charged program that makes no attempt to achieve balance or fairness. This is exactly the kind of media power concentration that many of us have feared, and why license renewal requires real scrutiny on your part.

Thanks,

Gene Garber